

2004 Professional and Youth Jury Awards

Professional Jury Award—Best of the Festival

This award is for the best feature film, chosen by a professional jury.

All ages

SCIENCE FICTION, Dany Deprez, Belgium, Germany, Netherlands

Youth Jury Award-- Best of the Festival

This award is for the best feature film, chosen by the youth jury.

Ages 9+

FLYING CLASSROOM, Tomy Wigand, Germany

Ages 13+

ELINA, Klaus Härö, Sweden

National Film Board of Canada Prize for Best Animation – All ages

GOOD RIDDANCE, Nick Hilligoss, Australia

Most Inspirational Short Film or Video

This award is for the film or video that teaches you something new in an interesting way, and inspires you to want to learn more about the subject.

Ages 9+

GOOD RIDDANCE, Nick Hilligoss, Australia

Ages 13+

FROM HARLING POINT, Ling Chiu, Canada

Most Innovative Short Film or Video

This award is for the film or video that makes the best use of the medium to explore a subject, idea, or story. This film or video takes a new approach, presents a new idea, or makes use of a technique that advances the art or craft of filmmaking.

Ages 9+

THE DAY I DECIDED TO BE NINA, Ingeborg Jansen, Netherlands

Ages 13+

TWO MINUTES FROM FARADIS, Daniel Svrkin, Israel