

2005 Professional and Youth Jury Awards

Professional Jury Award—Best of the Festival

This award is for the best feature film, chosen by a professional jury.

POLLEKE, Ineke Houtman, Netherlands

National Film Board of Canada Prize for Best Animation

RAVEN TALES, Simon James & Chris Kientz, Canada

Edith Lando Peace Prize

100% WOMAN, Karen Duthie, Canada

Youth Jury Award-- Best of the Festival

This award is for the best feature film, chosen by the youth jury.

Ages 9+

NITABOH, Akio Nishizawa, Japan

Ages 13+

POLLEKE, Ineke Houtman, Netherlands

Most Inspirational Short Film or Video

This award is for the film or video that teaches you something new in an interesting way, and inspires you to want to learn more about the subject.

Ages 9+

SCHOOL SWAP, Ingeborg Jansen, Netherlands

Ages 13+

BIG ALL AT ONCE, Tina Havelock Stevens, Australia

Most Innovative Short Film or Video

This award is for the film or video that makes the best use of the medium to explore a subject, idea, or story. This film or video takes a new approach, presents a new idea, or makes use of a technique that advances the art or craft of filmmaking.

Ages 9+

OUR NEW TOY, Lawren Bancroft-Wilson, Canada

Ages 13+

RYAN, Chris Landreth, Canada